Welcome back to a new school year!

I trust you all had a relaxing summer break and are ready to embark on a new school year ahead. It is with great excitement that I once again assume the role of Executive Director, representing over 500 active and retired members.

I am eager to embrace the challenges ahead with enthusiasm and commitment and am dedicated to providing you with the support and guidance you need.

Here's to a successful and fulfilling school year for everyone!

Update on Negotiations for Management Group

Many members are inquiring about the status of negotiations for the Management Group. The Treasury Board has not yet issued a mandate to commence discussions. Once the mandate is given, we anticipate negotiations will focus on salary scales and working conditions for senior staff. The Direction générale des relations du travail (DGRT), where our president Julie Carpentier serves as a member and an AAESQ representative, has begun discussions in preparation for the upcoming round of negotiations.

As a reminder, a survey was distributed to members in March to gather feedback on their priorities. Of the 216 participants who completed the survey, 82% indicated that wages were their top priority, while 18% emphasized the importance of workplace flexibility, fringe benefits, and opportunities for growth.

Key negotiation topics which were identified will include compensation for extending the 35-hour workweek, workplace flexibility and scheduling, additional paid days (such as sick leave and vacation), and benefits (such as dental, vision, and health coverage).
