Post card # 16-17– 001

Subject: The start of 2016 – 17

As I begin my 12th year with AAESQ, many pleasant and rewarding memories of my career of educational administration as a principal, Human Resources Department and the time with AAESQ come to mind.

I hope that you will be able to say the same as the year unfolds. As an administrator you will be called upon to deal with many types of situations and many of these will require you to be up to date on the policies of your school board and the working conditions of those that you supervise. Not to be forgotten are your provincial and local management working conditions.

Verifying content is always an important rule. It is always a good idea to seek advice before you press send as it might be very difficult to have to deal with the consequences.

Your Local Management Association should be the starting point of your research. In the event that they are unfamiliar or uncertain AAESQ is here to help.

As the objective of the “Postcard” is one topic per issue please be on the lookout as very shortly, you will be receiving an update on your pension plan.
